

Moses: The Reluctant Prophet

An Adam Hamilton Bible Study led by Duke Divinity School intern Matthew Nelson

Retrace the life of Moses from his modest birth and rescue as a baby to the courts of Pharaoh, from herding flocks in Midian to leading his people out of Egypt.

Join Adam Hamilton as he travels from Egypt to Mt. Sinai, the Nile, the Red Sea and the wilderness exploring the sites of Moses' life. Using historical information, archaeological data, and biblical text, Hamilton guides us in the footsteps of this reluctant prophet who grew in his relationship with God and by the end of life had successfully fulfilled the role he was given.

Turn your own reluctance into boldness as you examine the significant challenges facing Moses and how God shaped his character and life in powerful ways.

This Summer you have the opportunity to travel through the story of Moses in a brand new Adam Hamilton book study, “Moses: In the Footsteps of a Reluctant Prophet.” Our Duke Summer Intern, Matt Nelson, will lead this six-week study beginning on Thursday, June 22nd from 6:30-8:00 in the Choir Room. This class is open to all so please sign up in the Gallery to ensure your spot in the class!

[Sorry, Registration is closed at this time]