March 1st is the beginning of Lent/Easter, the holiest (and busiest) seasons of our life together here at Seaside. Not only are we embarking on a congregational book study with Joyce Rupp’s classic devotional, The Cup of Our Life, with sermons touching on the weekly themes of the book, but between now and Easter, we will have hosted three concerts (including the Easter Cantata), held five special worship services, and a pancake supper. All of that is on top of the normal schedule of classes, food pantry, free store, lay visitation, ministry and committee meetings, hospital visits and funerals, and on and on. It’s easy to get overwhelmed. As leaders, it is doubly easy to roll through these most holy of days focusing more on the “what’s next?” than on the “why?”

Ironically, we can take a lesson from the secular world as we gear up for the next six or seven weeks. For these days also encompass what college basketball fans have come to know as “March Madness.” After competing through the regular season each conference plays its own tournament—three or four days of grueling competition for the finalists. Then there is a five or six-day span to prepare for a national tournament made up of 68 of the best teams from across the country who will compete over three weekends in a win-or-go-home tournament. But many of the best coaches begin their preparation for the “Big Dance” not with killer practices, but with light workouts and lots of rest. This gives time for aching muscles to heal, for the stress of the regular season to subside, and for the team to turn the page and focus on the road ahead.

In much the same way, Jesus took time away from the stresses and strains of the road. He seemed to prefer going up into the mountains to pray, to commune with God, perhaps even to heal sore feet. In one instance, Jesus takes three of his disciples with him and, the Gospels tell us, he was transfigured before them—Peter and James and John saw Jesus . . . with Moses and Elijah and they were talking together . . . then they heard the voice of God speak: “This is my Son, listen to him.” After this, Luke says, “Jesus turned his face toward Jerusalem.” Was this trip up the mountain the powerful experience of prayer, the “recharge,” that Jesus needed to begin his final journey to the cross? I like to think so.

Certain songs can provide a helpful reminder during this journey through Lent and to the cross—a reminder that we, too, need to “come away.” One in particular is helpful to me as I look down the road to the “frantic pace” of our Lent and Easter. It reminds me that the best preparation often begins with rest and reflection: Come away with me to a quiet place, / apart from the world with its frantic pace, / to pray, reflect, and seek God’s grace. / Come away with me. Come away; Come today with thoughts of the countless ways / that God's steadfast love blesses all our days, / and join with me in silent praise. / Come away with me. Come away. (Words by Mary Nelson Keithahn, 531)

let's talk about stroke

All are welcome!

Walk the Labyrinth – March 23-29th

The canvas labyrinth will be available to walk in the Fellowship Hall March 23-29. You can walk the labyrinth any time the church is open. Information will be available outside the Fellowship Hall on how to make your labyrinth walk a meaningful experience. A workshop explaining the labyrinth is scheduled for Thursday, March 23rd from 10:00-11:30 a.m.

The labyrinth provides pathways to wholeness. It is a time for prayer, meditation, and finding the quiet center of our lives. During this time of Lent we invite you to take time to pause and "Come away with me to a quiet place," and experience spiritual renewal.

When you have been hurt physically, you go to your doctor or the Emergency Room. If you choose not to seek treatment, your wound or broken bone does not heal properly. In the same manner, when you are hurting emotionally from the loss of a loved one, it’s important to reach out and get help. Grief is a journey that doesn’t allow for detours, you can’t go over, under, or around it—you must go through it. GriefShare is the Emergency Room for those who are mourning the loss of a loved one.

Seaside’s 13 week cycle of GriefShare sessions began in February and will continue through May 5th. Each GriefShare session is self-contained which enables anyone to come into the cycle at any time. Meetings are Fridays from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Choir Room. Each session contains three parts; a video, large group discussion (if you don’t feel like talking, that’s okay), and small support group time. It’s okay to cry, we have plenty of tissues. Tears are part of the healing process. We have women and men leaders to assist each small group through their journey through grief.

Our “graduates” tell us that coming the first time is the most difficult step and encourage others to come to at least three sessions before deciding if it is right for them. They also have found the small support group time to be very helpful.

If you would like to speak to someone about GriefShare, please call Jim McNeill at (910) 393-9548 (Cell) or (910) 579-2405 (Home).

Teddy Bear Ministry

On Tuesday, February 7th, 28 women gathered in the Fellowship Hall to make 125 teddy bears from "start to finish." The Teddy Bear Ministry has been an ongoing outreach mission of the UMW for many years. These bears are given to Hope Harbor, Novant Hospital, the sheriff’s department, our local fire and EMS departments, and Sunset Beach and Ocean Isle Beach police departments. This means that a child in a crisis situation will have a teddy bear to provide them comfort during a difficult time.

Thank you to everyone who participated in this workshop!

March Madness—March Gladness!

March Madness is here . . . and I don’t mean just basketball! What a busy month! And it begins with March 1st as we celebrate Ash Wednesday at 7:00. Several of our ensembles as well as our wonderful choir will be providing music for our service. Be sure to come and begin your Lenten journey in worship.

Our Joyful Noise Children’s Choir will sing again at the 9:30 & 11:00 services on Sunday, March 5th. We are so blessed to have a wonderful group of children who love to sing and share their music. Thank you kids!

On Monday, March 6th, free tickets for the Easter Cantata will be available in the church office. Our Easter cantata, “Glorious Day” will be performed on Sunday, April 9th at 4:00 & 7:00 p.m. Invite your family and friends to join you for a beautiful evening of Easter music.

March 19th at 4:00—Seaside Friends in Concert II

I’ve invited three of my former students to join Linda Ladrick for a wonderful vocal concert. They will sing everything from Broadway to sacred music, but the highlight of the program will be the closing song where all four voices will join together for a Mark Hayes arrangement of “You’ll Never Walk Alone.” It will be a showstopper! Following the concert there will be a lovely reception in our Fellowship Hall. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased in the church office. All proceeds will benefit our choir trip to NYC where they will perform in Lincoln Center in May. Please come out and support your choir and enjoy an afternoon of beautiful music!

With a voice of singing,
Kathryn

Seaside’s Food Pantry served the following during January:

Seniors—219
Adults—257
Children—171
Total served—64
Total households served—201

Seaside’s Food Pantry continues to serve clients at pre-holiday numbers. Although November and December often tend to be the months in which we serve the most clients, January and February have been extremely active months as well. The winter months are especially difficult for those who struggle financially. Heating their homes becomes more of an issue this time of year in addition to having adequate food. So please continue to support our food pantry through your gifts and prayers. Our food pantry staff invites you to stop by the Fellowship Hall any Tuesday morning between 9:30-11:30 am to see this outreach mission of our church in action.
Permanent Endowment—A Personal Story

procrastinate [pro-'kras-te-nât] - what most Americans do when it comes to creating a will or preparing an estate plan.

For most, preparing an estate plan seems like an enormous task. Some think they do not have enough assets to cause concern. Liz and Mark Gibbens learned firsthand how postponing estate planning wreaks havoc on the heirs.

When Mark’s father died, they found copies of a handwritten will, but couldn’t locate the original. "We couldn’t probate his estate until the original was found." Remembers Mary.

The Gibbens, of University UMC in Baton Rouge, used that experience to their advantage. They created separate wills with the expertise of their attorney.

"Don't wait," Mark says. "People need to get their affairs in order before they die to help their heirs figure things out later."

For the Gibbens, leaving a bequest to the church felt as natural as worshipping on Sunday. "The church is an important part of our lives. If you support it while you’re alive, why not after you’re gone?" asked Mark. Each has left a personal bequest to the church.

Mark explained that, “Even those with an existing will can add a bequest for the church by adding a codicil. This way you don’t have to re-write the entire will. Things can happen that might prevent you from having the chance to state what your wishes are.” Sadly, three fourths of American die each year without a valid will.

"My advice to those contemplating writing a will? Do not procrastinate," says Mark. Should you take Mark’s advice and get on with it? If so, contact one of your Pastors or someone on the PESG Committee, and they will help you get started!

United Methodist Women

The Seaside Unit of the United Methodist Women is part of North Carolina’s Southwest Harbor District. The district is divided into four areas and encompasses most, if not all, of Duplin, Sampson, Cumberland, Pender, New Hanover, Columbus and Brunswick counties. There are approximately 12 UMW units in Brunswick County. Meetings, conferences, workshops and mission studies are held throughout the entire Harbor District. Seaside’s UMW enrollment for 2016 was 100 members. We are excited to report that the enrollment is increasing as 2017 begins!

Please notice the UMW bulletin board in the gallery, which has all the meeting dates and leaders for each circle. A huge thank you goes to Diane Middleton, our unit Vice President, for keeping the board current and attractive! Not a member yet? Please contact any of the Unit or Circle leaders for more information.

UMW Unit Meeting on March 13th

United Methodist Women will hold their next unit dinner meeting at 5:30 pm, Monday, March 13th in the Fellowship Hall. The M&M Circle will host the meeting and you do not have to bring a dish – just come and enjoy casseroles, salad, & dessert.

Pastors Scott and Mary Jane will discuss the planning guide “It’s an Act of Love” which helps loved ones understand a person’s wishes for their memorial service. Yvette Gosline from Brunswick Senior Resources will also join us to share information on the programs and services that are available to our community through Brunswick Senior Resources. They offer many opportunities that promote our well-being and enhance the quality of life for senior adults.

All women of the church, their friends and neighbors are invited to attend the Unit dinner meeting. So that we might prepare adequately for dinner, there is a sign-up sheet in the gallery for all who plan to attend. For more information, please contact June Donley at 575-5467, or Marilyn Schenck at 843-655-2893.

Stephen Ministers are laypeople—Christian men and women—trained to provide one-to-one care to people experiencing a difficult time in life, such as grief, divorce, job loss, chronic or terminal illness or relocation. Stephen Ministers come from all walks of life. Their commonality? A passion for bringing Christ’s love and care to people during a time of need.
The United Methodist Men will hold their next monthly meeting on Monday, March 6th at 6:30pm. Our speaker will be Jeffery Salter, a new member of SUMC. Jeffery retired from the Secret Service after twenty years of service to our country from 1967-1987. He served under Presidents Johnson, Nixon, Ford, Carter, and Reagan. He was stationed in Oklahoma City, Norfolk, and Washington, D.C. His assignments included working on the Vice President’s detail for two years and the President’s detail for four years. Come and enjoy a good dinner with great fellowship.

Getting To Know: Kathryn Parker

Biography?
I was born in Texas and lived there until I was 8 years old when we moved to Richmond, Va. then to Raleigh, NC and finally to Dunn, NC where I graduated from Dunn High School. It was in high school that Phil and I met – ask him sometime about how he used to tease me! I have 3 grown children who are married and each have 2 children so I have 6 wonderful grandchildren - 5 boys and 1 girl. The highlight of each summer is when they come down here for a week at the beach! What a week!

What are your day-to-day duties?
My job is really all about the details. I do a lot of preparation for each choir or ensemble making sure everything is set up and ready for a smooth rehearsal. I don’t like to be unprepared for rehearsals! Emails are another big part of my day – to – day activities. Answering and sending emails takes more time than I enjoy! Each week, I spend some time in rehearsal myself. Some people believe that Lynn and I don’t have to rehearse anymore after all of these years – WRONG! We spend many hours rehearsing before Sunday morning. And it seems the older I get, the more rehearsing I need!

Years at SUMC?
I am finishing my 12th year at Seaside in June.

Favorite part of your job?
My favorite part of this job is Sunday morning worship services. Since I attend all 3 services, I am blessed to be able to experience worship in several different ways as each service has its own “personality” and style of worship.

Most challenging part of your job?
The most challenging part of my job is not having enough days or time in the day to accomplish everything! My job requires a good deal of long-range planning as well as weekly planning.

Pets?
NO!!!

What do you do to unwind?
I love to read and enjoy the beach in my spare time.

What is your favorite place to take visitors?
Everyone enjoys going to the Calabash Creamery for ice cream! Who doesn’t love ice cream?!

Tell us something about yourself that most people don’t know.
On my “bucket list” is a trip to Ireland. I hope to make it there one day!!

Team Leadership – Yard Sale

We want you! Looking for a way to be involved in the church, meet new people, extend the church’s outreach, and be a part of helping others? What can you do? Be a leader for a team! There is a need for leaders for different teams.

This month the spotlight is on the Country Fair Yard Sale. The Yard Sale team is important as it contributes the most income of any of the Country Fair teams. The Yard Sale team sorts and prices a wide variety of the materials and items donated by Seaside’s generous church members. The team begins the weekly sorting in early April and continues throughout the summer until just before Country Fair in September. The team sorts and prices a broad assortment of items that can be best described as EVERYTHING except books, clothing, garden items or jewelry. Although the work can occasionally be tiring, the team has a lot of fun working together. To make it a more manageable task, Yard Sale this year will be broken down into different divisions: Housewares, Holidays and Decorations, and Traditional Yard Sale. We need leaders for each team. Call 315.729.6476 if you are interested in being a leader or part of a team. We really need you!

Mark your calendars NOW!

- Sunday, April 2 – Drop off begins at the church shed
- Tuesday, April 4 – Pick up and deliveries begin. Call SUMC to arrange.
- April – September – Individual teams prepare for Country Fair. Want to join a team? Call 315.729.6476
